

The Al Nusra Front incident

June 2013

Briefing

The Al-Nusra Front has taken the President and several officials as hostages in the Presidential palace in Damascus. Negotiations have been ongoing for the last four days. The Al-Nusra Front is growing tired of the lack of progress in the negotiations. We expect the situation to escalate and spiral out of control quickly. Syrian forces supported by an American drone are preparing a coordinated attack to free the President and to eliminate the terrorist group.

Due to the situation, the “Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Expatriate” and other official buildings have heavily increased their security.
